2. What is a Privacy Notice?

A Privacy Notice sets out to individuals how we use any personal information that we hold about them. We are required to publish this information by data protection legislation. This Privacy Notice explains how we process (collect, store, use and share) personal information about data subjects.

3. What is Personal Information?

Personal information relates to a living individual who can be identified from that information. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession.

'Special category' personal information relates to personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

4. Policy Statement

During an individual's time with Holy Cross Multi-Academy Company, we will use information that we gather in relation to them for various purposes. Information that we hold in relation to individuals is known as their "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from the individual directly and data about the individual that we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold an individual's personal data for a period of time after they have left the school. Anything that we do with an individual's personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about our data subjects, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and the rights of individuals in relation to their personal data processed by us.

5. What personal information do we process about Directors and Local Governing Body Members?

The categories of Directors and Local Governing Body Members' information that we collect, hold and share include:

- personal information such as name, any former names, address, date of birth, occupation nationality, telephone and email contact details,
- Records of Business Interest
- Disclosure and Barring Service Certificate number and start date
- Self-assessment skills audit
- Personal profiles provided for MAC/School website

6. For what purposes do we use personal information?

We use Directors and Local Governing Body Members data to:

- Fulfil statutory obligations.
- Communicate relevant information to individuals or groups or Boards or Local Governing Body Committees for the purpose of them carrying out their roles and responsibilities as a Director or Local Governing Body Members.

7. Collecting Director and Local Governing Body Member information

Whilst the majority of Director and Local Governing Body Member information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain Director or Local Governing Body Member information to us or if you have a choice in this.

8. What are the legal reasons for us to process your personal information?

We are required to process personal information in accordance with data protection legislation and only do so when the law allows us to. Data Protection law sets out the lawful reasons we have to process your personal information and these are as follows:

a. To comply with the law

We collect and use general purpose staff information to meet certain legal requirements and legal obligations placed upon the school by UK law. We therefore have the right to process your personal information for such purposes without the need to obtain your consent.

Details of the type of processing that we must undertake, the personal data that is processed, the legislation which requires us to do so and who we may share this information with is set out in Table 1.

b. To protect someone's vital interests

We are able to process personal information when there is an emergency and/or where a person's life is in danger.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 2.

c. With the consent of the individual to whom that information 'belongs'

Whilst much of the personal information is processed in accordance with a legal requirement, there is some personal information that we can only process when we have your consent to do so. In these circumstances, we will provide you with specific and explicit information regarding the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 3.

d. To perform a public task

It is a day-to-day function of Holy Cross Catholic MAC to ensure that Directors and Local Governing Body Members receive the training and support they require. Much of this work is not set out directly in any legislation but it is deemed to be necessary in order to ensure that Directors and Local Governing Body Members are properly supported and able to fulfil their roles and responsibilities.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 4.

9. Special category personal information

In order to process 'special category' data, we must be able to demonstrate how the law allows us to do so. In addition to the lawful reasons above, we must also be satisfied that ONE of the following additional lawful reasons applies:

- a. Explicit consent of the data subject
- b. Necessary for carrying out obligations and exercising specific rights in relation to employment and social security and social protection law
- c. Processing relates to personal data which is manifestly made public by the data subject
- d. Necessary for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims
- e. Necessary for reasons of substantial public interest
- f. Necessary for preventive or occupational medicine, or for reasons of public interest in the area of public health
- g. Necessary for archiving, historical research or statistical purposes in the public interest

The lawful reasons for each type of sensitive category personal information that we process is set out in the tables attached.

10. Who might we share your information with?

We routinely share Director/Local Governing Body Member information with:

- a. Local Authorities
- b. The Department for Education (DfE)
- c. Disclosure and Barring Service
- d. Companies House
- e. Education and Skills Funding Agency
- f. Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills
- g. The Birmingham Diocesan Education Service

- l. The public (Website)

We do not share information about our Directors and Local Governing Body Members unless the law and/or consent as outlined in our policies.

Please refer to the tables for information about what personal information is shared with which specific third parties.

11. What do we do with your information?

All personal information is held in a manner which is compliant with Data Protection legislation. Personal information is only processed for the purpose it was collected.

Holy Cross Catholic MAC monitors the personal information it processes and will only share personal information with a third party if it has a legal basis to do so (as set out above).

12. How long do we keep your information for?

In retaining personal information, Holy Cross Catholic MAC complies with the Retention Schedules provided by the Information Record Management Society. The schedules set out the Statutory Provisions under which Holy Cross Catholic MAC are required to retain the information

13. Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

14. What are your rights with respect of your personal information?

Under data protection law, Directors and Local Governing Body Members have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact the MAC Data Protection Officer.
